

The Champaign County Community Coalition presents

Embracing Your Past Finding A New Horizon with Evelyn Hood

Join us for an afternoon of community and history! Learn what local organizations are doing to preserve African-American history in central Illinois. Evelyn Hood, founder, executive director, & curator of the African-American Cultural & Genealogical Society Of Illinois, Inc. Museum in Decatur, will tell us her story and provide a virtual tour of her cultural institution. Also, enjoy refreshments, live music, & curated displays on African-American history from other local museums.

When: Saturday, April 27th
1-3 p.m.
Where: Salem Baptist Church
500 E. Park St.
Champaign, IL 61820
